

Guildford Library TLC Membership Application

Enjoy collaborating to turn ideas into reality? Want to make a positive impact in your community? Surrey Libraries' Teen Library Council (TLC) is the group for you! TLC aims to develop teen oriented programs, reach out to the larger teen community, and provide input on the library's collections and services for teens. Members are the voice of Surrey Library's teens, and earn service hours for their hard work in TLC.

Applications for TLC are accepted only from May 31st to Aug. 15th, 2019, for the upcoming school year (September 2019- June 2020).

Surrey Libraries' Teen Library Council is for teens aged 13-18 who want to:

- Develop leadership and collaboration skills to plan library events and services for teens.
- Become library ambassadors, and promote Surrey Libraries in the community.
- Plan and take part in library events!

Membership requirements:

- You have your own valid Surrey Public Library card
- You commit to attending all regular meetings during the school year, September-June
- You will use the library appropriately, respecting the space, library staff, and your fellow teens.

For more information call the Teen Librarian at 604-598-7371.
