Databases

Ancestry Library Edition: International genealogy resource with the largest online Canadian family history collection, searchable by surname. Includes many digitized records. Ancestry is only available at the Cloverdale Branch. The Library Edition matches the record set of Ancestry.com, with the exception of the historical book collection. However, the same online book collection can be found in Heritage Quest, also available at Cloverdale.

A list of resources within Ancestry, relevant to Saskatchewan can be found by conducting a search by location:

- 1) Click TWICE on the Search Tab
- 2) Under "Explore by Location" choose Saskatchewan

Ancestry includes, for example:

Canadian Census records from 1881-1921 and Prairie Provinces for 1906 & 1916.

Canadian soldiers of World War 1 1914-1918.

Border Crossings: Canada to U.S. 1895-1956 & U.S. to Canada 1908-1935.

Heritage Quest: Although Heritage Quest is best known for its US records, the online historical book collection is valuable for Saskatchewan residents as well. Heritage Quest also includes PERSI, an index of local history publications.

Census Records

Online

Census returns contain a variety of very useful information such as place of birth, origin, level of education, religion, etc. Many census returns for Saskatchewan are available online and searchable by surname. Rather than beginning with microfilm, use one of the following online databases for faster and easier results. When searching, remember that Saskatchewan joined Confederation in 1905; prior to that it was part of the Northwest Territories. The first Canadian census covering the area that is now Saskatchewan was taken in 1881.

- 1881: LDS Family History website: www.familysearch.org
 - Index includes microfilm numbers, as well as household names, ages, district, sub-district and page numbers. Corresponding microfilms are available at Cloverdale.
- 1881-1921: Ancestry Library Edition at Cloverdale Library
 - Includes the Prairie Provinces Censuses (Alberta, Manitoba, Saskatchewan) of 1906 & 1916.
 - Links to full digitized records.
- 1901, 1906 and 1911: Automated Genealogy: <http://www.automatedgenealogy.com/index.html>
 - Links to full digitized records.
- 1666-1916: Library & Archives Canada: <http://www.bac-lac.gc.ca/eng/census/Pages/census.aspx>

Microfilm

Finding Aids in print will help you identify the correct microfilm for your ancestor, if you know the geographic location. They are arranged by province, county, sub-district and township. Use the following Finding Aids for Saskatchewan:

- 1921 Census:

This is the most recently released national Census. It is available online through Ancestry only at this time and there are no finding aids currently available. This census includes all provinces and offers information such as paternal origins, trades, and education. This census is fully indexed can be searched by surname and browsed geographically.
- 1916 Census:

This is the most recent special census released for the provinces of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta. There is a binder marked “1916 Census,” located on the census book shelves near the print directories, which summarizes the census districts and sub-districts by name.

To find the corresponding microfilm number for a certain location, see the list in the binder of film numbers and areas covered on each reel.
- 1911 Census:

Three binders marked “1911 Census,” located on the census book shelves near the print directories, summarize the census districts and sub-districts by name.

To find the corresponding microfilm number for a certain location, go to the Library & Archives Canada website and search the 1911 Census database by geographic location: <http://www.bac-lac.gc.ca/eng/census/1911/Pages/1911.aspx>
Ask staff if you need assistance using the database
- 1906 Census:

This is a special census for the Provinces of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta. There is a binder marked “1906 Census,” located on the census book shelves near the print directories, which gives a detailed breakdown of the census districts and sub-districts and corresponding microfilm numbers.

- 1901 Census:

There are several copies of Catalogue of census returns on microfilm, 1901 which is organized by province and district with relevant microfilm numbers.
GEN CIN 304.60971 NAT 1993

- 1666-1891 Census:

There are several copies of a Finding Aid called Catalogue of Census Returns on Microfilm 1666-1891, which includes Saskatchewan as part of the Territories for 1881 and 1891. The Aid is organized by province and district with relevant microfilm numbers noted for each location.

Census Indexes:

Cloverdale Library has a collection of census indexes filed on the shelves adjacent to the census finding aids for the 1881, 1891 and 1901 censuses, including Saskatchewan/Northwest Territories. You can find a list of these indexes at Cloverdale Library by doing a general keyword search of the library catalogue using the words "SASKATCHEWAN CENSUS."

General Information about Census Records

Vital Records

Civil registration in Saskatchewan began in 1878 for marriages and in 1888 for births and deaths, although few records exist prior to 1895. Privacy laws restrict public access to these records, as follows:

Births: after 100 years have passed since the event
Marriages: after 75 years
Deaths: after 70 years

Immediate family may bypass privacy restrictions by applying for a copy of a birth, marriage or death registration directly to the Information Services Corp. of Saskatchewan, Vital Statistics Registry at:

<https://www.ehealthsask.ca/Pages/default.aspx>

Remember to request a photocopy of the registration document as this carries the most information.

Searchable database:

http://genealogy.ehealthsask.ca/vsgs_srch.aspx

- Search by name for births of more than 100 years ago and deaths prior to 1917. Death records will be updated as they become available.
- Marriage records will be made available after the death records have been completed.

Border Entry Records

Online

Ancestry Library Edition includes Border Crossings: From U.S. to Canada, 1908-1935 that covers border entries into Saskatchewan at various locations along the US border. Ancestry also has Border Crossings from Canada to the U.S., 1895-1956.

The Ancestry database also includes Form 30 records: from 1919 to 1924. During this time, the federal government required that individual forms be completed and submitted when crossing the border into Canada.

Microfilm

The library has microfilm records of border crossings from the U.S. to Canada between 1908-1919, organized by date and port. To view a list of ports of entry and the corresponding film numbers, check section 3-41 in the library's guide: Canadian Family History Resources: A Guide to the Materials Held at the Cloverdale Library.

General Register of Chinese Immigration

Online

The UBC department of History recently indexed the General Register of Chinese Immigration. The following database at Library and Archives Canada includes this Register, as well as other Chinese Immigration records:

<http://tinyurl.com/oo67sj>

Microfilm

Between 1887-1923 Chinese people wishing to immigrate were required to pay a $500.00 tax. The records of these payments provide a wealth of information about the immigrants. The microfilmed records are organized by the date immigration certificates were issued. To view these microfilms consult section 3-52 to 3-54 of the library's guide:

Land Records

With the acquisition of Rupert's Land in 1869, western lands came under federal control. In 1930, responsibility for Crown Lands was transferred to the provincial governments of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta. The federal government retained a copy of the original patents issued for these lands which are indexed in the Western Land Grants database at Library & Archives Canada. The actual homestead applications and files relating to the grants were transferred to the provincial archives.

Land titles: Local government records are often incomplete and the only source of information may be the Land Titles Office of the Information Services Corp. of Saskatchewan (ISC). The land titles registry is a chronological filing of documents relating to a particular piece of land and therefore the documents for that piece of land are not necessarily filed together. See the ISC website for access to digitized documents: (you must create and account first)

Homestead Records: Search the Saskatchewan Homestead Index (1872-1930) by name or by land location: www.saskhomesteads.com/ Includes those who bought or sold North West Métis or South African scrip or received soldier grants after World War One. Hudson's Bay Company Indexes

The Hudson's Bay Company was active in the development of the western provinces since its establishment in 1670. These records can be useful to research early Saskatchewan genealogy. Many types of records exist including contracts, personal accounts, pension records, estate records and census information on some First Nations peoples.

Métis Land Records & First Nations

Census Records

Census records may be a good starting point as “racial origins” are often noted on the census, as well as household members, place of birth and birthdates. Determining the geographical location could also lead you to a band name.

Cloverdale Library owns microfilm number T-6554 covering the 1901 Native census returns for a number of provinces, including Saskatchewan. The Indian Agencies enumerated on this microfilm include: Touchwood Agency (Wishart, Fishing Lake, Nut Lake); Moose Mountain Agency (Percy, Carlisle); Crooked Lake Agency (Broadview).

See page 7-1 of Canadian Family History Resources: A Guide to the Materials Held at Cloverdale Library for more information on how to search census records for First Nations information.

Métis or Half –Breed Scrip: Land Records, Half-breeds & Original White Settlers 1870-1920

“Scrip” refers to a system used by the Canadian government beginning in 1870, of issuing certificates for land claims made by mixed-race people and original white settlers, for property released from the Hudson’s Bay Company’s jurisdiction in the West.

The Department of the Interior records (RG-15) offer considerable family history information. Notably women can be searched by maiden name as extensive cross-referencing is provided. See the Métis Land Claims in section 7 of the library’s Canadian Family History Resources: A Guide to the Materials Held at Cloverdale Library.
